Announcements

Kevin announced that Jerry Vaughan passed away April 11.

He announced that our club is eligible to receive the 2013-2014 Presidential Citation.

Sonny Vaiani announced that the social will be held at Fisherman's Wharf from 5 to 7:30 on April 17. Everyone is encouraged to attend.

Kevin said the Crawfish Boil was great and he heard great things about it from those who attended.

Keith Bassett thanked everyone who helped. Though final numbers are not tabulated, at least $5,000 from the event will be donated to the Club's Foundation.

Program

Keith introduced the program: Brian Mitchell from the Galveston Historic Foundation and the 40th Annual Homes Tour.

The 40th annual Galveston Historic Homes Tour opens the doors to privately owned, historic island homes May 2nd through 4th and 10th through 11th, 2014. This year's tour features nine homes, six of which have never been on tour

Other special events include a preview evening on May 2 from 5:30 pm to 8:30 pm and History on Tap Dinners to be held in private homes. A Mother's Day Brunch at Garten Verein is a highlight of the weekend. For ticket prices, dates, times and locations, visit galvestonhistory.org.

John Knecht won the door prize wine.

Scott Livanec announced that the Crawfish Boil saw a great crowd and thanked John Zendt and the staff at Moody Gardens, the Lighthouse Charity Team and all the volunteers for their help. Club members who purchased raffle tickets were eligible to be in a drawing for a large-screen television.

Kay Sandor won the prize.

Upcoming Programs

April 30: John Augelli, Rosenberg Library Update

May 7: Brett Millican, US Coast Guard

May 14: Larry Nichols, GISD Update

Kevin Harrington led the group in reciting the Rotary Four-Way Test.

Of the Things we think, say or do:

- 1) Is it the TRUTH?
- 2) Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3) Will it build GOODWILL and better FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4) Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned
