Guests and Visiting Rotarians

There were many guests on hand for Kevin Harrington's final meeting as club president.

Visiting Rotarian: Steve Patenson, Palo Alto University Rotary Club

Announcements

Kevin Harrington announced that Stephen Duncan was recently named a bishop of the Catholic Orthodox Church of America.

He asked club members to sign up for their committee preferences.

There will be a reception for Lonnie Cox's installation as club president on July 2 from 5:30 to 7:30 at Fisherman's Wharf. Club members and their spouses are encouraged to attend.

Kathy Thomas announced that the Rotary Tab is done. She said 55 Rotarians helped support this team effort and thanked all for their support and help. She presented a check to the Rotary Foundation for $1128 representing profits over expenses.

Bert Sweetman introduced scholarship recipients. Five scholarships were awarded. The Communities in Schools recipients are Kerry Tillman, and Chassidy Robinson; for Ball High the awardees are Hannah Hall and Jaylynn Walker. The O'Connell winner is Justin Viernes.

He thanked fellow committee members, Mary Beth Bassett, John Knecht and Don Davison.

Program

Kevin Harrington thanked the Rotary Board members and others and said the best part of being club president was getting to know the club members. He also thanked his wife, Edie, for her support. He then turned the program over to incoming president, Lonnie Cox. Lonnie presented Kevin with the past president's pin and acknowledged that he did a great job during his year of service.

Billie Rinaldi won the door prize.

Lonnie Cox led the group in reciting the Rotary Four-Way Test and added a fifth element:

Of the Things we think, say or do:

- 1) Is it the TRUTH?
- 2) Is it FAIR to all concerned?
- 3) Will it build GOODWILL and better FRIENDSHIPS?
- 4) Will it be BENEFICIAL to all concerned
- 5) Will it be FUN?
